

The State Seal

The State Seal consists of the State Coat of Arms surrounded by the words "The Great Seal of the State of Michigan". The coat of arms has an elk and a moose supporting a shield displaying a man standing on a grassy peninsula. The following mottoes appear on the seal:

"E Pluribus Unum" - From One, Many

"Tuebor" -I Will Defend

"Si Quaeris Peninsulam Amoenam Circumspice" –If You Seek a Pleasant Peninsula, Look About You
